

AI usage declaration

"AI was utilized as a conceptual aid to gain a deeper understanding of the project's logical framework and architectural principles. It served as a resource for clarifying complex concepts and troubleshooting environment-specific configurations, ensuring the final implementation was grounded in a clear comprehension of the underlying development patterns."